

FULLWELL CROSS

How to get to Fullwell Cross

Take either the A127 or A12 towards London. Once you are past Romford you will come to some traffic lights at a large junction with the Moby Dick pub on the left. Once past these traffic lights get into the outside lane ready for the next set of lights when you need to turn right. This road is Hainault Road and you will also see a sign for Fairlop Waters. Travel along this road until you get to the end that is a T-junction with a mini roundabout. Turn left along Forest Road. This is a long road. Soon after going under a railway bridge you will come to a roundabout. Take the second exit, which is the main road called Barkingside. You will see the pool on the left. Take the next left, which can easily be missed, which is Virginia Gardens. The car park is on the left. If this is full continue along Virginia Gardens, turn left and a car park is about 100 yds on the right.
